If your listing ended this year, the spring sale that closes is prepared this fall. The timeline is on the back.

DID YOUR LISTING END THIS YEAR?

The fall-to-spring timeline.

October — the walk-through, a real number from closed sales, and the plan in writing.

November – December — the short list of updates is completed quietly, before anyone else is thinking about spring.

January — photography, drone, video, and a private preview to my buyers and the top agents in the region.

February – March — launch on a date we choose, with new photography, a new number, and a new story.

Out-of-area buyers shop in January and February. The hills are green by March. A home that relists in January with last year's photos misses both.
