What's your home worth this fall?

Not the website guess. A real number from closed sales near you, built by my team and sent to you in writing. About a minute to request, and no one calls you unless you ask.

THINKING ABOUT NEXT YEAR?

Three things to do this fall.

1. Know your number. Closed sales near you, not a website estimate. On acreage the website is usually way off.

2. Spend on what buyers here pay for — outdoor living, a finished kitchen, well and septic paperwork on acreage — and skip the rest.

3. Choose your timing. Spring moves quickly here, and the homes that lead the spring market are prepared in the fall.

When you sell, you also have to buy. My team and I handle both sides so you're never negotiating one without the other.
